Welcome to The Media Streaming Journal

Greetings,

This year has been fraught with great mystery and angst regarding Internet broadcasting.

The United States Copyright Royalty Board will not be increasing the royalty payment requirements for music streaming in 2017

www.broadcastlawblog.com/2016/12/articles/no-cost-of-living-increase-in-webcasting-royalties-for-2017/

However ...

Several record labels have recently accused Youtube of not paying what they consider "adequate compensation" for musical content hosted by the video giant. Youtube has countered by saying that the record labels are indeed getting appropriate compensation.

As a side note ...

The Financial Times is reporting that online streaming services are helping record labels increase the sale of music.

Strange days indeed.

Please feel free to contact either the Publication Director (Derek Bullard) or myself if you have any questions or comments regarding The Media Streaming Journal.

Namaste
